BUYER, the SITE as well as any third party. If, as a consequence of the above, the BUYER applies its right to cancel or terminate the concerned CONTRACT, this shall occur with exclusive tort to the CONTRACTOR.

7.1. SAFETY

Safety at work, in particular safety of the BUYER'S personnel and those of its suppliers, contractors, and visitors, is a mandatory priority for the BUYER, and as a fundamental value, no priority may override safety. As a consequence, the BUYER will not appeal to companies failing to reach high safety requirements and not fully complying with safety rules.

The CONTRACTOR fully endorses these policies and adopts them as its own, in so far as they relate to the performance of its obligations under any CONTRACT.

7.1.1. STAFF

Notwithstanding this obligation, the PARTIES shall meet before the end of this time period and the CONTRACTOR shall take all necessary actions to remedy this default.

The action plan shall be deployed by the CONTRACTOR, it being specified that all the costs arising from the deployment and implementation of this action plan shall be borne by the CONTRACTOR, which remains the only responsible for its success and for its consequences.

If despite a reasonable time period, after the deployment of this action plan the security rates remain under the expected levels:

The BUYER will be in right to request a penalty payment as specified in the concerned CONTRACT;

If the default continues, this shall be considered as a material cause of termination of the CONTRACT for the CONTRACTOR's default.

7.1.4. SAFETY AND HOMOLOGATIONS

Should any such force majeure event occur and prevent either PARTY from performing in whole or in part its contractual obligations, or may reasonably affect the future performance of its contractual obligations, then such PARTY shall (i) duly inform the other PARTY of said force majeure event without undue delay, (ii) take all necessary steps and actions to mitigate the effects resulting from said force majeure event, including the intervention of any third party if reasonably possible and (iii) inform the other PARTY thereof.

When it turns out that despite the implementation of the above-mentioned steps and actions, the execution of the concerned CONTRACT has definitely become impossible or will have to be postponed for more than three (3) months as from the notification date of such force majeure event, then the said CONTRACT may be terminated by either PARTY in writing upon a fifteen(15)-DAY prior notice, it being specified that the PARTIES shall do their best endeavours to settle the practical consequences of such termination in equity according to the circumstances.

In any case, each PARTY shall bear the costs and expenses it engaged from the starting point of the force majeure event up to the ending of said force majeure event or up to the termination date of the CONTRACT.

The knowledge by BUYER of any information disclosed to BUYER by the CONTRACTOR regarding the means the CONTRACTOR will put in place in order to achieve the above-mentioned results as well as the BUYER knowledge thereof shall in no way release the CONTRACTOR from achieving its RESULT OBLIGATION, or constitute a limit of the means it shall put in place to achieve this RESULT OBLIGATION.

15.2. BREACH OF ITS RESULT OBLIGATION BY THE CONTRACTOR

When the CONTRACTOR fails to achieve any of the above-mentioned results or does not fulfil its RESULT OBLIGATION, the BUYER may apply, after a formal notice remained without effect within the time period stipulated in the CONTRACT and without any prior judicial authorization or other proceedings, any of the remedies as listed in Clause 18.1 of the GENERAL CONDITIONS, and in particular take place of (or designate any third party of its choice to replace) the CONTRACTOR at the CONTRACTOR's expenses and risks.

15.3. DISCLAIMER

The CONTRACTOR shall not be liable if the non-fulfilment of its obligations is due to:

- a) a force majeure event, as defined in the GENERAL CONDITIONS ;
- b) the BUYER's negligence, if such action has had a direct impact on the appropriate fulfilment by the CONTRACTOR of its obligations and provided that no CONTRACTOR's act or omission has concurred to the occurrence of such negligence.

The participation of such subcontractors, in the performance or in the finalization of any part of the SERVICES shall not release, decrease nor limit in any way the liabilities or obligations of the CONTRACTOR under any CONTRACT.

For the purpose of the above, the CONTRACTOR shall remain fully liable towards the BUYER for all CONTRACTOR's acts, errors, mistakes, negligence, omissions and failures as well as for those of its subcontractors and any person or entity hired (widely speaking) by them, for the performance of any part of a CONTRACT, as if acts, errors, mistakes, negligence, omissions and failures had been made by the CONTRACTOR itself.

The BUYER may, if so agreed upon by the PARTIES and at the CONTRACTOR's expenses, choose to conduct such negotiations.

16.2.3. ASSISTANCE FROM THE BUYER OR THE CONTRACTOR

The BUYER shall, at the CONTRACTOR's request, afford all necessary and reasonable assistance for any such purpose and shall be reimbursed for all expenses incurred in doing so. The BUYER's rights to use the STANDARD SOFTWARE shall be assignable.

In addition, the CONTRACTOR shall, upon the BUYER's request and at no additional cost, provide the BUYER with all information and source code necessary to achieve the interoperability of other program(s) with the STANDARD SOFTWARE. In case of failure of the CONTRACTOR to fulfil its obligations, the CONTRACTOR shall, upon the BUYER's first request and at no additional cost, provide the BUYER with the source code (as specified here above) of the STANDARD SOFTWARE and all related DOCUMENTATION.

It is understood and agreed between the PARTIES that any access to source code (i) shall not release the CONTRACTOR from any of its obligations and (ii) shall not transfer nor assign any additional INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS to the BUYER, which shall be solely entitled to use the source code for the SERVICES and WORKS and EQUIPMENT exploitation, if any.
